ARTICLE III.

FIRE SAFETY

Sec. 14-61. Definitions.

Fire hazard means every building, structure, place, thing or condition which by reason of its nature, location, occupancy, condition or use may cause loss, damage or injury to persons or property by reason of fire or explosion.

(Ord. No. 24, § 2.01)

Cross References: Definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 14-62. Protective structures and devices required; authority of fire chief.

The fire chief shall have power and authority relating to the installation of such fire extinguishers, fire direct doors, firewalls, fire escapes, vents, safety valves, exit doors, exit lights and other safety devices or structures as the public safety and sound fire prevention practice may require in or on any store, office, commercial building, apartment, hotel, shop, factory, or other building or structure into which the public is invited or in which persons are employed or live as tenants, and it shall be the duty of the owner or occupant of any such lands, premises, building or structure to install such structures or devices and to keep such structures and devices in good working order at all times.

(Ord. No. 24, § 4.01)

Sec. 14-63. Inspections by fire chief.

The fire chief is hereby authorized to enter upon or into any lands, premises, building or structure within the township at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the lands, premises, building or structure to determine whether any fire hazard exists therein, or whether the provisions of this chapter are being observed, or whether all safety structures or other devices required by this chapter have been installed and are in good working order.

(Ord. No. 24, § 4.02)

Sec. 14-64. Designation of additional inspectors.

The fire chief shall have authority to designate any of his subordinates to perform the inspection duties imposed upon him by the terms of this chapter.
(Ord. No. 24, § 4.03)

Sec. 14-65. Compliance with orders of fire chief.

Any person who violates or fails to comply with any lawful order or direction of the fire chief given under the authority of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
(Ord. No. 24, § 5.01)

Sec. 14-66. Fire hazards declared nuisance.

Every fire hazard of whatever nature or origin is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and such fire hazard may be abated and removed or its continuance enjoined in any manner provided or permitted by law for the abatement of nuisances.
(Ord. No. 24, § 3.01)

Sec. 14-67. Combustible materials.

No person shall allow or permit any rags, waste, chips, trash, rubbish, wastepaper, ashes, oil, excelsior or other combustible material to accumulate on or in any lands, premises or building owned or occupied by him except in metal or other fireproof containers so located as not to constitute a fire hazard, nor shall any person keep or maintain any paint, varnish, or similar material unless the material is kept in closed containers when not being applied.
(Ord. No. 24, § 3.02)

Sec. 14-68. Heating and electrical devices.

No person shall construct or maintain on or in any lands, premises, or buildings owned or occupied by him any boiler, stove, water tank or heater, furnace, chimney, pipe, duct or other device for the production or transmission of heat, smoke or gas, or any electric wiring, which is so constructed, operated or located, or which is in such a condition of disrepair, as to constitute a fire hazard or to subject such lands, premises or building or other property in the vicinity thereof to the danger of fire or explosion.
(Ord. No. 24, § 3.03)

Cross References: Utilities, ch. 42.

Sec. 14-69. Improper construction or repair.

No person shall erect or maintain on any lands or premises owned or occupied by him any building or structure which by reason of improper construction, want of repair or other conditions therein is especially liable to fire or explosion or is so situated as to endanger other property in the vicinity thereof.
(Ord. No. 24, § 3.04)

Sec. 14-70. Bonfires and other fires.

No person shall kindle or maintain any bonfire or other fire unless the fire is located more than 15 feet from any building or paved road and is constantly attended until completely extinguished. The fire chief shall have authority to order the extinguishing of any bonfire or other fire whenever, in his judgment, the fire constitutes a hazard because of high wind or other conditions as set forth in section 51507 of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act (MCL 324.51507).

(Ord. No. 24, § 3.05)
